A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Holy Apostles Parish Family,

Last weekend, Jim Kintz came to our parish to start a ministry for those experiencing domestic violence. This is a tough situation where we wonder why such a person who appears so strong, struggles and puts up with so much. This is a very deceiving and dangerous situation that is misunderstood by so many. I invite you to read this reflection from a survivor.

Have a blessed week.

Fr. Paul

Are You That Kind of Woman?

Are you that kind of woman...looking so pretty and strong, shopping and bobbing through life like nothing is wrong.

Are you that kind of woman who looks in the mirror to check for bruises when no one else is there?

Are you that kind of woman who puts on that smile and acts so serene, but is walking around like an empty corpse, hoping no one can notice that someone has hacked your spirit for so long, leaving nothing but tears so fragile that you can hardly hang on?

Are you that kind of woman who allows someone to yell and call you a slut and a whore and never flinch once or tell?

Are you that kind of woman who knows nothing about love or honor, or why she feels like it is better this way than not having anyone at all?

If you're that kind of woman you need to be strong and scream out in rage, and not care if you're scorned.

If you're that kind of woman you need to stand tall and let no man degrade you, refuse to take the fall!

For people's violence around you is not just your fight to fight, just hold on and pray with all your might.

Let God's Spirit surround you, don't feel wounded and frail. Stand up to the violence and let no one prevail and crush your spirit.

Your Donations Support Needy Neighbors

During this Lenten season, some of us may be searching for an organization to help, a place to give a donation or perhaps the gift of time. If so, prayerfully consider assisting with St. Vincent de Paul. Named after Saint Vincent de Paul who was known for his charity and compassion to the poor, this organization seeks to help those who are suffering, no matter their religion, race or gender. Volunteers visit the needy in their homes to supply emergency food, help with utility bills, rent, medicines, transportation and more. SVdP always welcomes new volunteers, financial donations through GiveCentral and the Parish Poor Box as well as donations of toiletry items. This month, donations of toothbrushes and toothpaste are gratefully accepted. "Whoever has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor." Proverbs 22:9

DE PADRE JHAKSON PARA TI

Hermanos y hermanas, hace pocos días iniciamos el mes de marzo, y ya nos acercamos cada vez más a la celebración de la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Celebrar la Pascua es la razón y motivo de todo cuanto en esta cuaresma hacemos.

Pensando en esto, el evangelio de este domingo nos da una gran enseñanza. Una mujer samaritana, que no pertenece a los judíos, sino que es considerada pecadora y, por tanto, lejos de la gracia de Dios, se encuentra con Jesús y éste le devuelve su dignidad de persona.

Es interesante ver cómo Jesús conoce toda la historia personal de aquella mujer, y, sin embargo, en vez de condenarla, le muestra su lado misericordioso. Ese es el Dios que vamos a celebrar, un Dios que, conociendo nuestras miserias y pecados, nos hace ver su rostro de Padre que perdona y no condena.

Esto es un gran motivo para nosotros sentir muchas más ganas de hacer las cosas mejores en este tiempo de cuaresma, de tomar mucho más en serio este tiempo de reflexión y cambio de vida.

Esa samaritana representa al ser humano sediento de felicidad; ella había intentado muchas veces encontrar la felicidad en sus relaciones personales; pero Jesús le muestra un agua que calma su sed de ser feliz: su misma persona.

Muchas veces buscamos esa felicidad en cosas que son temporales y sin importancia que pertenecen a este mundo, pero Jesús nos invita a reflexionar sobre cómo dejamos que “su agua viva” calme todo lo que está árido en nosotros. Jesús es esa agua en el desierto que calma la sed de cualquier situación que el hombre pueda estar viviendo.

El agua que Jesús ofreció a aquella mujer la hizo sentir amada y no rechazada por su historia personal. El Señor no solo calma nuestra sed, sino que limpia todo aquello que podamos tener “sucio” en nuestro corazón. Lo que debe guiarnos es aquella misma petición que le dijo la mujer a Jesús: “dame de esa agua para más nunca tener sed”.

En esta cuaresma que podamos acercarnos a la reconciliación, a ese momento donde Jesús nos limpia de nuestros pecados y calma nuestra sed de felicidad. Solo Él puede hacerlo y devolvernos nuestra dignidad de Hijos de Dios.

En Cristo,

Fr. Jhakson
